

the Government this year, and they will give the Democratic candidates a handsome majority."

Comptroller Myers was jubilant. "Mr. Cleveland," he said, "will be elected. He will carry this State by at least 80,000 plurality. The Democratic Convention has given the country a sound, businesslike platform in addition to a splendidly unprejudiced war of enthusiasm sweeping over the entire country for the Democratic ticket. Mr. Cleveland will surely receive the unequalled and hearty support of Tammany Hall in this city, and all the Democrats of this State will vote solidly for him."

Deputy Comptroller Myers echoed the sentiments of his chief. "The nomination of the ex-President means sure victory by a large majority," he said.

Mayor's Marshal Engelhardt said he was pleased with the nomination, though he had favored Senator Hill. "Tammany Hall will work loyally for the Democratic nominee, and that means victory," were his sentiments.

Judge McGuire, of the Court of General Sessions, said: "Of course, I am satisfied with the re-nomination of Mr. Cleveland. I do believe, however, the fight is no walkover. In my opinion it is the struggle of 1888 over again, but by hard fighting the Democratic ticket will win."

Acting District-Attorney Gunning S. Bedford said: "The Convention which gave Cleveland 61 1/2% votes certainly must have known what it was doing. The Democracy will unquestionably beat the Republicans in November."

Assistant District-Attorney Davis: "Of course I shall support Mr. Cleveland with all the power at my command. The platform has a true Democratic ring about it, and means Democratic victory."

Judge Van Wyck, of the City Court: "The Democratic party that re-nominated Grover Cleveland represents the feeling of the country. He cannot, however, be elected without the support of Tammany Hall, which he will get unconditionally."

Sheriff Gorman, Treasurer of Tammany Hall, reached his office shortly before noon and declared that Mr. Cleveland would receive Tammany Hall's united support. "I think the Convention has done a very wise thing," he said.

"It has nominated a man who can carry this State without question. Cleveland is the strongest man before the people of the country today. Every Democrat will support him, and a great many Republicans as well."

Tammany Hall will do its utmost to elect him. Of course, we have a right to differ before the nomination, but now all differences should be dropped and every true Democrat should work for the success of the ticket."

Acting Mayor Arnold came down late. He expressed himself as entirely satisfied with Mr. Cleveland's re-nomination. "There has been a marked drift towards Mr. Cleveland," he said, "and I think he can carry this State and be elected. At the same time I think Harrison will be a very strong candidate and it will be a close fight. Factional differences ought not to be heard of in this fight, and I don't believe they will be when the campaign is fairly opened."

Street-Cleaning Commissioner Brennan said: "The next President of the United States will be Grover Cleveland. Factional differences have been set aside, and all Democrats will be as a unit in support of the ticket nominated at Chicago."

Deputy Commissioner of Public Works Holman: "The re-nomination of Mr. Cleveland is a good one. Now that the election is announced the strife should be at an end. Mr. Cleveland will receive the loyal support of Tammany Hall and will be elected. His majority in this city will be larger than it was in 1884 or in 1888."

"I was in favor of Mr. Cleveland's re-nomination from the start," said Assistant Corporation Counsel Stirling, "and I am satisfied that he will be carried to victory by a tidal wave of enthusiasm."

Coroner Ferdinand Levy: "I think the nomination is an excellent one. I am confident it will bring victory to the Democratic party. There is no man in the United States so popular with the masses as Grover Cleveland. He has my hearty support."

HILL SAYS NOTHING AT PRESENT.

OFFICIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—The correspondent of THE EVENING WORLD called on Senator Hill this morning and asked him for some expression as to the nomination of Mr. Cleveland and as to his own position, now that the Convention had acted.

Mr. Hill asked to be excused from saying anything on either subject at this time. The Senator was looking bright and cheerful.

THE PRESIDENT AND THE NEWS.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—It was not until 7:30 this morning that President Harrison knew for a certainty that ex-President Grover Cleveland had again been chosen as his competitor in the race for the next Presidential term.

He had anticipated Mr. Cleveland's selection, but had been surprised only at the eve of a different result. The telegraphic arrangements between the White House and the Democratic Convention hall at Chicago were precisely the same as those with the recent Republican Convention at Minneapolis.

The President remained in his library until 10:30 o'clock last night, reading the bulletins of the Convention, and then remarked to Private Secretary Halford, who was his sole companion at the time, that it would probably be at least two hours before the balloting began, and as he did not desire to lose any sleep over the matter he would retire.

The telegraph operators were thereupon excused for the night and the President heard nothing more from the convention until he arose at his usual hour this morning. An effort was made by a representative of the Associated Press to induce the President to say what he thought of the nomination, but he courteously declined to say anything at all on the subject of politics.

PATTISON TO CLEVELAND.

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 23.—Gov. Pattison has sent the following congratulatory telegram to Grover Cleveland:

"Accept congratulations. The people with unity were of the Convention at the polls in November."

SAID AT WASHINGTON.

Senator Kenna, West Virginia (Dem.) says: "Mr. Cleveland's nomination has seemed to me, for an indefinite period to be the logical result of the situation of the situation of the Democratic party."

"I think I believe to be a true Democrat, and I think it will be found staunchly supporting the ticket."

Senator Pettigrew, South Dakota (Rep.)—Mr. Cleveland is more popular in my State than any other Democrat.

Senator Allen, of Washington (Rep.)—I am inclined to think that Mr. Cleveland will have the support of the strong, well-settled Democrats in the State of Washington.

Senator Harris, of Tennessee (Dem.):

While I have fully recognized the splendid ability and absolute integrity and frankness of Mr. Cleveland, I have radically differed with him on the silver question, and for these reasons I have not favored his nomination. But, having been nominated, I shall, of course, give to the ticket an earnest and active support."

With Mr. Cleveland's nomination the third party will assume some proportions because of the silver question. There is a large Alliance element in Tennessee, but only a minority of it (and I think a small minority) favor the third party movement.

Senator Sanders, of Montana (Rep.): The nomination of Mr. Cleveland will be approved in Montana by strict-faced Democratic partisans, almost wholly. I will not lose any enthusiasm because of any indifference of the candidate to the material interests of the State or of the region identified with it.

Deputy Comptroller Myers echoed the sentiments of his chief. "The nomination of the ex-President means sure victory by a large majority," he said.

Mayor's Marshal Engelhardt said he was pleased with the nomination, though he had favored Senator Hill. "Tammany Hall will work loyally for the Democratic nominee, and that means victory," were his sentiments.

Judge McGuire, of the Court of General Sessions, said: "Of course, I am satisfied with the re-nomination of Mr. Cleveland. I do believe, however, the fight is no walkover. In my opinion it is the struggle of 1888 over again, but by hard fighting the Democratic ticket will win."

Acting District-Attorney Gunning S. Bedford said: "The Convention which gave Cleveland 61 1/2% votes certainly must have known what it was doing. The Democracy will unquestionably beat the Republicans in November."

Assistant District-Attorney Davis: "Of course I shall support Mr. Cleveland with all the power at my command. The platform has a true Democratic ring about it, and means Democratic victory."

Judge Van Wyck, of the City Court: "The Democratic party that re-nominated Grover Cleveland represents the feeling of the country. He cannot, however, be elected without the support of Tammany Hall, which he will get unconditionally."

Sheriff Gorman, Treasurer of Tammany Hall, reached his office shortly before noon and declared that Mr. Cleveland would receive Tammany Hall's united support. "I think the Convention has done a very wise thing," he said.

"It has nominated a man who can carry this State without question. Cleveland is the strongest man before the people of the country today. Every Democrat will support him, and a great many Republicans as well."

Tammany Hall will do its utmost to elect him. Of course, we have a right to differ before the nomination, but now all differences should be dropped and every true Democrat should work for the success of the ticket."

Acting Mayor Arnold came down late. He expressed himself as entirely satisfied with Mr. Cleveland's re-nomination. "There has been a marked drift towards Mr. Cleveland," he said, "and I think he can carry this State and be elected. At the same time I think Harrison will be a very strong candidate and it will be a close fight. Factional differences ought not to be heard of in this fight, and I don't believe they will be when the campaign is fairly opened."

Street-Cleaning Commissioner Brennan said: "The next President of the United States will be Grover Cleveland. Factional differences have been set aside, and all Democrats will be as a unit in support of the ticket nominated at Chicago."

Deputy Commissioner of Public Works Holman: "The re-nomination of Mr. Cleveland is a good one. Now that the election is announced the strife should be at an end. Mr. Cleveland will receive the loyal support of Tammany Hall and will be elected. His majority in this city will be larger than it was in 1884 or in 1888."

"I was in favor of Mr. Cleveland's re-nomination from the start," said Assistant Corporation Counsel Stirling, "and I am satisfied that he will be carried to victory by a tidal wave of enthusiasm."

Coroner Ferdinand Levy: "I think the nomination is an excellent one. I am confident it will bring victory to the Democratic party. There is no man in the United States so popular with the masses as Grover Cleveland. He has my hearty support."

HILL SAYS NOTHING AT PRESENT.

OFFICIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—The correspondent of THE EVENING WORLD called on Senator Hill this morning and asked him for some expression as to the nomination of Mr. Cleveland and as to his own position, now that the Convention had acted.

Mr. Hill asked to be excused from saying anything on either subject at this time. The Senator was looking bright and cheerful.

THE PRESIDENT AND THE NEWS.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—It was not until 7:30 this morning that President Harrison knew for a certainty that ex-President Grover Cleveland had again been chosen as his competitor in the race for the next Presidential term.

He had anticipated Mr. Cleveland's selection, but had been surprised only at the eve of a different result. The telegraphic arrangements between the White House and the Democratic Convention hall at Chicago were precisely the same as those with the recent Republican Convention at Minneapolis.

The President remained in his library until 10:30 o'clock last night, reading the bulletins of the Convention, and then remarked to Private Secretary Halford, who was his sole companion at the time, that it would probably be at least two hours before the balloting began, and as he did not desire to lose any sleep over the matter he would retire.

The telegraph operators were thereupon excused for the night and the President heard nothing more from the convention until he arose at his usual hour this morning. An effort was made by a representative of the Associated Press to induce the President to say what he thought of the nomination, but he courteously declined to say anything at all on the subject of politics.

PATTISON TO CLEVELAND.

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 23.—Gov. Pattison has sent the following congratulatory telegram to Grover Cleveland:

"Accept congratulations. The people with unity were of the Convention at the polls in November."

SAID AT WASHINGTON.

Senator Kenna, West Virginia (Dem.) says: "Mr. Cleveland's nomination has seemed to me, for an indefinite period to be the logical result of the situation of the situation of the Democratic party."

"I think I believe to be a true Democrat, and I think it will be found staunchly supporting the ticket."

Senator Pettigrew, South Dakota (Rep.)—Mr. Cleveland is more popular in my State than any other Democrat.

Senator Allen, of Washington (Rep.)—I am inclined to think that Mr. Cleveland will have the support of the strong, well-settled Democrats in the State of Washington.

Senator Harris, of Tennessee (Dem.):

other paper came out with the news, and THE EVENING WORLD was then in the hand of everybody.

The North-American (Republican) says: "The logic of the Democratic situation has been with Mr. Cleveland from the first, and the North-American has always held that his nomination would be good politics. Mr. Cleveland is out and out the strongest man the Democrats could nominate."

LONG ISLAND CITY APPROVES.

SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.

LONG ISLAND CITY, June 23.—A majority of the Democrats of Queens County seem to be satisfied with the nomination of Cleveland for President. Hill, however, has a strong following in this county, especially in Long Island City, where he is expected to carry the election. The ex-Governor showed in the convention, leading Democrats of the county say that, as it has now been demonstrated that Cleveland is the most popular Democrat in the country, the party will give him loyal support.

WARDEN W. E. BROWN, OF KING KING.

The nomination of Grover Cleveland had been discussed by the enthusiastic members of the stock exchange in an impromptu celebration of the event at the stock exchange yesterday afternoon at the close of business, when a fine lithograph portrait of the ex-President was displayed, and the members gathered about it and cheered themselves hoarse. The brokers, however, had another jubilation this morning on receipt of the decisive news.

When the business day began the nomination was the chief subject of comment in every circle. Such Democrats as had remained in town expressed the greatest satisfaction, especially those who may be classed as business men.

Republican business men spoke in the highest terms of the nomination, and those who are thick-and-thin Republicans confessed that their party would have a tremendous task to beat the ex-President.

Representative Butler (Dem.) of Iowa: "There is danger in Cleveland's nomination, but I am ready to take the stump twice a day until November to prove that that danger does not exist."

Representative Blount (Dem.) of Georgia: "It was the best nomination we could make under the circumstances. . . . In the present condition of American politics Cleveland is peculiarly fitted for the Presidency."

Representative Mallory (Dem.) of Florida: "I do not think that Cleveland was our strongest man; but I do not take as gloomy a view of the situation as some do. I think that Cleveland can carry New York."

CABINET MEN SAY LITTLE.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Secretary Foster was very well satisfied with the Democratic nomination. As a Republican, Hill was his first choice and Cleveland his second, but he felt certain of Republican success against either of them.

THE BADGE ADJUSTER IN CLEVELAND'S HEAD-QUARTERS.

None of the other members of the Cabinet would talk on the subject for publication, but they all privately expressed their entire satisfaction with the situation.

GOT THE NEWS FROM "THE WORLD."

The news of Grover Cleveland's nomination at Chicago was first given to New York this morning by THE EVENING WORLD. Only a few minutes after the ballot selecting him for the Democratic standard-bearer had been completed.

The effect of the news was remarkable. First of all, it revealed that hundreds of New Yorkers had forsown sleep and were waiting for news of the nomination, even at that hour, the dawn of a new day.

Of course, most of the waiters were Democrats, and the nomination of Cleveland was received with demonstrations of approval. The few Republicans who had accompanied their Democratic friends in the all-night vigil expressed the belief that Cleveland would be a very hard man to beat.

THE COLORED CASHIER OF THE GRAND PACIFIC BARROOM.

Ex-Excise Commissioner Fitzpatrick telegraphed from Chicago to the Fourth Avenue District, Tammany Hall organization, to put out a Cleveland transparency in front of the club rooms at Clinton street and East Broadway, and it was done at an early hour this morning, being the first to be displayed in this city.

VOICE OF THE PRESS.

Boston, June 23.—The Herald (Independent) says: "Cleveland starts out with many manifest advantages. He represents character. He represents dignity. He represents strength. He represents more—he represents principle."

The Journal (Republican) says: "Cleveland's nomination places in the van of the opposing forces the man who best deserves to be there—the logical champion of Democratic principles and natural leader of the Democratic hosts."

THE COLORED CASHIER OF THE GRAND PACIFIC BARROOM.

Ex-Excise Commissioner Fitzpatrick telegraphed from Chicago to the Fourth Avenue District, Tammany Hall organization, to put out a Cleveland transparency in front of the club rooms at Clinton street and East Broadway, and it was done at an early hour this morning, being the first to be displayed in this city.

VOICE OF THE PRESS.

Boston, June 23.—The Herald (Independent) says: "Cleveland starts out with many manifest advantages. He represents character. He represents dignity. He represents strength. He represents more—he represents principle."

The Journal (Republican) says: "Cleveland's nomination places in the van of the opposing forces the man who best deserves to be there—the logical champion of Democratic principles and natural leader of the Democratic hosts."

THE COLORED CASHIER OF THE GRAND PACIFIC BARROOM.

Ex-Excise Commissioner Fitzpatrick telegraphed from Chicago to the Fourth Avenue District, Tammany Hall organization, to put out a Cleveland transparency in front of the club rooms at Clinton street and East Broadway, and it was done at an early hour this morning, being the first to be displayed in this city.

agreed upon, the Democratic Convention at Chicago yesterday finished up a great day's work by the nomination of Grover Cleveland for the Presidency.

The North-American (Republican) says: "The logic of the Democratic situation has been with Mr. Cleveland from the first, and the North-American has always held that his nomination would be good politics. Mr. Cleveland is out and out the strongest man the Democrats could nominate."

LONG ISLAND CITY APPROVES.

SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.

LONG ISLAND CITY, June 23.—A majority of the Democrats of Queens County seem to be satisfied with the nomination of Cleveland for President. Hill, however, has a strong following in this county, especially in Long Island City, where he is expected to carry the election. The ex-Governor showed in the convention, leading Democrats of the county say that, as it has now been demonstrated that Cleveland is the most popular Democrat in the country, the party will give him loyal support.

WARDEN W. E. BROWN, OF KING KING.

The nomination of Grover Cleveland had been discussed by the enthusiastic members of the stock exchange in an impromptu celebration of the event at the stock exchange yesterday afternoon at the close of business, when a fine lithograph portrait of the ex-President was displayed, and the members gathered about it and cheered themselves hoarse. The brokers, however, had another jubilation this morning on receipt of the decisive news.

When the business day began the nomination was the chief subject of comment in every circle. Such Democrats as had remained in town expressed the greatest satisfaction, especially those who may be classed as business men.

Republican business men spoke in the highest terms of the nomination, and those who are thick-and-thin Republicans confessed that their party would have a tremendous task to beat the ex-President.

Representative Butler (Dem.) of Iowa: "There is danger in Cleveland's nomination, but I am ready to take the stump twice a day until November to prove that that danger does not exist."

Representative Blount (Dem.) of Georgia: "It was the best nomination we could make under the circumstances. . . . In the present condition of American politics Cleveland is peculiarly fitted for the Presidency."

Representative Mallory (Dem.) of Florida: "I do not think that Cleveland was our strongest man; but I do not take as gloomy a view of the situation as some do. I think that Cleveland can carry New York."

CABINET MEN SAY LITTLE.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Secretary Foster was very well satisfied with the Democratic nomination. As a Republican, Hill was his first choice and Cleveland his second, but he felt certain of Republican success against either of them.

THE BADGE ADJUSTER IN CLEVELAND'S HEAD-QUARTERS.

None of the other members of the Cabinet would talk on the subject for publication, but they all privately expressed their entire satisfaction with the situation.

GOT THE NEWS FROM "THE WORLD."

The news of Grover Cleveland's nomination at Chicago was first given to New York this morning by THE EVENING WORLD. Only a few minutes after the ballot selecting him for the Democratic standard-bearer had been completed.

The effect of the news was remarkable. First of all, it revealed that hundreds of New Yorkers had forsown sleep and were waiting for news of the nomination, even at that hour, the dawn of a new day.

Of course, most of the waiters were Democrats, and the nomination of Cleveland was received with demonstrations of approval. The few Republicans who had accompanied their Democratic friends in the all-night vigil expressed the belief that Cleveland would be a very hard man to beat.

THE COLORED CASHIER OF THE GRAND PACIFIC BARROOM.

Ex-Excise Commissioner Fitzpatrick telegraphed from Chicago to the Fourth Avenue District, Tammany Hall organization, to put out a Cleveland transparency in front of the club rooms at Clinton street and East Broadway, and it was done at an early hour this morning, being the first to be displayed in this city.

VOICE OF THE PRESS.

Boston, June 23.—The Herald (Independent) says: "Cleveland starts out with many manifest advantages. He represents character. He represents dignity. He represents strength. He represents more—he represents principle."

The Journal (Republican) says: "Cleveland's nomination places in the van of the opposing forces the man who best deserves to be there—the logical champion of Democratic principles and natural leader of the Democratic hosts."

THE COLORED CASHIER OF THE GRAND PACIFIC BARROOM.

Ex-Excise Commissioner Fitzpatrick telegraphed from Chicago to the Fourth Avenue District, Tammany Hall organization, to put out a Cleveland transparency in front of the club rooms at Clinton street and East Broadway, and it was done at an early hour this morning, being the first to be displayed in this city.

VOICE OF THE PRESS.

Boston, June 23.—The Herald (Independent) says: "Cleveland starts out with many manifest advantages. He represents character. He represents dignity. He represents strength. He represents more—he represents principle."

The Journal (Republican) says: "Cleveland's nomination places in the van of the opposing forces the man who best deserves to be there—the logical champion of Democratic principles and natural leader of the Democratic hosts."

THE COLORED CASHIER OF THE GRAND PACIFIC BARROOM.

Ex-Excise Commissioner Fitzpatrick telegraphed from Chicago to the Fourth Avenue District, Tammany Hall organization, to put out a Cleveland transparency in front of the club rooms at Clinton street and East Broadway, and it was done at an early hour this morning, being the first to be displayed in this city.

said: "The sixty-ninth Regiment is solidly Democratic and will vote as such next Fall, notwithstanding the fact that Hill would have been our choice."

At Col. Cavanaugh's tent the news was quietly received, as it was also at headquarters.

DR. DEPEW HEARS THE NEWS.

Waxes Eloquent on the Strength and Weakness of Cleveland.

Dr. Chauncey M. Depew was just going to his breakfast this morning when an EVENING WORLD reporter called on him to get his views in reference to Mr. Cleveland's nomination. Dr. Depew was not yet aware of the nomination, and when a copy of THE EVENING WORLD'S Extra of this morning, giving the details, was handed to him, he gave expression to a "Well, well—that is news, indeed!"

"However," he added, "I am not in the least surprised. I predicted this result more than a year ago. I said at that time that Harrison and Cleveland would be rival candidates during this campaign."

"What do I think about Cleveland's strength as compared to that of Hill in New York? Well, those great expert Democratic State and city bosses, Flower, Sheehan, Murphy and Croker, ought to know, I suppose, and they claim that Cleveland cannot carry this State. It is not for me, a Republican, to contradict them. An expert politician's analysis of a state problem ought to carry about the same weight as the analysis of a skilled chemist in matters chemical."

"If I hold any view of the subject, differing from that of those gentlemen, it is that both Cleveland and Hill are about equally weak in a certain sense. In the State of New York, there is a strong element of 20,000 strong, which will vote for Cleveland and which Hill can never have commanded, while, on the other hand, there is a solid element of from 10,000 to 20,000 votes which Hill would have got, and which is opposed to Cleveland."

"Cleveland is elected you may set it down as certain that the Democratic State machine will be changed. Hill's political life is ended. I like Mr. Hill personally, and it is natural that I should wish that this evil should not befall him. The very contemplation of the possibility of Hill losing his political career raises a tear to my eye. Do you see it?" he asked laughingly. There was more of a wink than a tear in his eye.

AW. . . . .

Major Gleason went to the convention a Hill man, but last night he telegraphed the leaders of his party in Long Island City that Cleveland's nomination was assured and directing them to prepare to raise a Cleveland banner at once. The banner will be unfurled as soon as the big Mayor returns home.

FIRED GUNS IN JERSEY.

TRENTON, N. J., June 23.—Cleveland's nomination was received here with much enthusiasm. A few minutes after the news was flashed over the wires a salute of 100 guns was fired near the State House.

Gov. Abbott's friends are jubilant and will hold a mass-meeting to-night to ratify the nomination. There is a strong Cleveland feeling in New Jersey, and leading Democratic statesmen here place New Jersey in the Cleveland column at least by 8,000 majority.

SENATOR VOORHEES GOES HOME.

CHICAGO, June 23.—Senator Voorhees, of Indiana, is seriously ill with neuralgia of the heart, to which he is subject. He left the city for home last night, but before going sent a letter to Chairman Lamb, of the Indiana delegation, in which, after saying his physician advised him against making a speech, he wrote:

SENATOR GILSON, THE HANDSOMEST MAN IN THE CONVENTION.

"Another result of Cleveland's election would be the substitution of William C. Whitney, assisted by ex-Secretary Fairchild, as state boss, instead of Hill."

"My eloquent friend, Bourke Cockran, the crown of the present marriage, would be divorcing divorces over the ingratitude of republics, while Mr. Frederic H. Coudert would assume the role of a divorcee, and herald to a listening universe the triumph of Cleveland and Reform."

"You may also record that while the Democracy is thus making a spectacle of itself the columns of Harrison and Hill will march to victory."

At this point Dr. Depew finished his breakfast and his speech together and arose to go about his daily tasks.

PLATT KEEPS THE MACHINE.

He Will Decline to Give It Up to Mr. Harrison's Friends.

The Platt-Miller combine has determined to hang on to the State machine for the campaign, despite the clamor of bad taste on the part of the ardent Harrisonites.

"You may also record that while the Democracy is thus making a spectacle of itself the columns of Harrison and Hill will march to victory."

At this point Dr. Depew finished his breakfast and his speech together and arose to go about his daily tasks.

WILL INCREASE HIS VOTE.

STAPLETON, S. I., June 23.—Senator Hill's failure to secure the nomination is a disappointment to his friends in this county, but one of the members of the Democratic County Committee said that before election the feeling against Cleveland will have appeared, and the ex-President's vote in Richmond county will equal if not exceed that which he received when he last ran for President.

TAMMANY'S BIGGEST BANNER.

A half dozen carpenters were busy this morning putting the finishing touches to the big framework in front of Tammany Hall, on which will be hung the biggest campaign banner ever put out by the Wigwagites.

A banner portrait of ex-President Cleveland, along with the Democratic Vice-Presidential nominee, will occupy the greater portion of the canvass, and the rest of the space will be devoted to the names of the Tammany Hall candidates for municipal offices.

Ex-President Cleveland's portrait may adorn the canvass to-morrow.

AT THE STATE CAMP.

PERKINSVILLE, June 23.—The news of the nomination of Grover Cleveland